Vaughan Williams' Concerto Grosso for Strings

Saturday 7 June 2025, 10am-4.30pm

Wick Assembly Rooms

This event is free of charge and open to string players of all abilities, aged 8 and above. (School children must be receiving lessons on an orchestral string instrument.)

With conductor Susie Dingle and a group of Scottish Chamber Orchestra musicians, we will be playing Vaughan Williams' Concerto Grosso for Strings. This event marks the 75th anniversary of the premiere of this work which was written for the Rural Music Schools Association Orchestra.

Vaughan Williams cleverly split the orchestra into three sections based on skill level to make the performance completely inclusive: Concertino (advanced), Tutti (intermediate: grade 4-8), and Ad Lib (novice: open strings to grade 4).

Our event aims to replicate the Royal Albert Hall premiere in spirit – bringing together a large orchestra of string players of all ages and abilities from across rural northern Scotland to play alongside professional musicians.
